

LOS ANGELES PUBLIC LIBRARY

Literature/Fiction Department and present

FIRST LOOK/FULL LENGTHS 2006/A New Play Reading

LOVE WATER

by Jacqueline Wright

Directed by Jessica Kubzansky

Produced by Isabel Storey

A 14-year-old boy fleeing a toxic family and a restless young woman take refuge in a large pipe overlooking a polluted river. A hallucinogenic fairy tale for adults by one of America's most exciting playwrights.

7 p.m., Monday April 24, 2006

Central Library's Mark Taper Auditorium
630 West Fifth St., Los Angeles 90071

FREE!

First come, first served, no reservations required. For more information call (213) 228-7331

Please join the writer and other artists for a wine, cheese and dessert
POST-SHOW RECEPTION, graciously hosted by

MCCORMICK & SCHMICK'S
SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

633 West Fifth St., Fourth Level, U.S. Bank Tower (directly across from Central Library)

For information about easy parking, visit the library website at www.lapl.org. Note: Library parking garage at 524 S. Flower St. has a $7 maximum after 4 p.m. Also, after 5 p.m. many local garages charge a flat fee of $5.

Ensemble Studio Theatre-LA is generously funded by the California Community Foundation, Harold and Mimi Steinberg Charitable Trust, and the Hollywood Foreign Press Association.

ADA accommodations available upon request.